So. Car. cases to & files his objections to Peake (6-22-23-
*seeks to set them aside by 59(E)*60(b)(3)

- 1) ProSe seeks to Suppl.-Amend his Mandamus to transfer his So. Car. State & Fed. cases out of hands of forgers & Defs. Controls; & objects to the forged Peake (6-22-23, 17) Fraud-Sham orders; & seeks to set them aside, by Fed. R. Civ. Proc. Rules 59(E)*60(b), (3)(4)(5)28 USC -1341 it's a felony to send forged orders by mail, & S.C. Code 15-13 440(6)(7), & F.R. Civ. Proc. Rules 59*65; &
- 2) ProSe filed Mandamus to transfer not a 1983 action & his Constal. violates are uncomprehensible & are not frivolous & states a proper basis to transfer; & there's an out of control conspiracy at fact & forging Court orders is a felony serious crime & done to cause harms & illegal detention & to corrupt 1,000's of felones of Big officials proven & undisputed in 3:17-344-TLW-RJG just received forged orders on (6-14-17) & 17-cv-40-1181-another conspiracy at (6-8-17) order & 3:11-646 & changed to 3:16-3731-JFA-by forgers; see details of felonies, & also in J-Rock 6:17-290*612*749*1425*1561 RBH Forged over 7,000 Orders & letters; which ProSe has a Constal. right to seek transfer to Nor. Car. Jurisd. speedily & does so again & fees already paid & debited to his Cooper account - $350.00 by forged order (6-14-17) & McBride & Hasty cases fees already paid by Indigent Funds &
- 3) ProSe states his Mandamus issues are not 1983 status ones & only can be gotten by writ of Mandamus & objections to Peake-forgers ruling for ProSe file 1983, which is fraud-by Court to mislead; to try & stop hearing & Counsel given, & arrests of Refs. felony & forgers & he's in correct Jurisd. by over 40 conspirators are & have committed felony acts on ProSe's issues raised; same as J-Rock's, & there's no fee for Mandamus, but fees already paid, if Court wants to transfer those? & objects to Peake-forgers seeking saw sponte dismissal without prejudice & there's no defects in his writ & seeks still for Deps. to be reserved, by ProSe already served them. see proof in above cases & (6-8-17) 125 pgs. served on Deps. @ Richmond City, Ct., Attys. Davidson & Briggs & Judge Refs. McSpaddin-aider-conspirators in 17-cv-40-1181 & 3:17-344-TLW cases. & there's no serious flaws in Mandamus, only in Sham Fraud-Forged Peake Forgers Orders, which I strongly object to & seek to set them aside, by above Statutes; & declaratory injunctive reliefs.

See; Smith, 531 U.S. 1181 (1997) (PLRA) $250. 400.00 fees down & apply to Mand. nor Motions to vacate- set aside, no Habeas nor Appeals);

 See; Ullster, 486 U.S. 592 (1988) even where barred from review Fed. Ct. can hear Constal. issues being denied); See; Quick, 257 F. Supp. 252 (D.S.C. 1966) Declaratory relief granted by 15-53-420 & 57 & down matter there are other remedies available);
 4.) Prose has shown a Constal. right to seek Mandamus not a 1983 suit, to transfer his Mandamus & suits out of forgers hands & theirs & Refs. controls, & demands & be served again & processed & appoint Counsel & order Prose removed to Nor. Car. Fed. custody for hearings & waive reverse any fees to Refs. for their bad conducts & felony acts. 1915-(b) (4) & (F)(1)
 See; Feller, NO-04-2457-(M-2005-US LEXIS-18977-at *5 (D. Kan. Aug. 8, 2005) (Unpub) holding claims of false arrests & imprisoned are not prison condition & (PLRA) doesn't apply, Offel, 1751-Appx 1, 235 (10th Cir. 2006)); & Prose does raise & prove this illegal imprisoned, by conspiring to frame him, & Nicks, Richland on (3-31, 17), & Kottman. Counties on 6-12, 17, have gotten rid of all charges & expungement from his records, which caused the false conviction & (Val. 2-515), which now convictions has no evidence to support them, by those certified ones used in a conspiracies to frame Prose; &
 5) Prose incorporates his mandamus - pages into this objection to support the relief he seeks, & for Court NCT & JEP - to recur if they are in fact party to forged orders in Prose's & Feller's cases, & pray court holding hearings within 1 day are best & gent's relief speedly, & sustain & as true by (15 USC-1621/1622/1623/1746).
